Deacon's Corner

The memorial of St. Andrew, the Apostle, will be celebrated on Tuesday, November 30. He was a fisherman and a follower of John the Baptist. It was Andrew who introduced Peter, James and John to Jesus.

When Jesus called his disciples He chose ordinary people, like Andrew, with no wealth or social standing. He chose them not for who they were but for what they might become through his love and teaching. The same is true for us. Jesus is calling each of us into an intimate and loving relationship with a merciful God. As His children, He wants to transform us through the Holy Spirit so that we can imitate Andrew and the other dedicated men and women who gave all for the love of Christ and their neighbors.

Like St. Andrew, we may need to leave parts of our former life aside as we follow the Lord this Advent. To follow him, we can pray, listen quietly and respond to Jesus as He calls us through his Spirit in our daily living
