World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis has established the first ever, World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will be celebrated on Sunday, July 25.

The theme of this world day is Jesus' message: "I am with you always" from the Gospel of Matthew. This day of celebration was chosen to coincide with the feast day of Saints Joachim and Anne, who were Jesus' earthly grandparents. In the future, the world day for Grandparents and the Elderly will be commemorated on the fourth Sunday of July.

In his written message to grandparents and the Elderly, Pope Francis states, "The whole Church is close to you – to us – and cares about you, loves you and does not want to leave you alone! May every grandfather, every grandmother, every older person, especially those among us who are most alone, receive a visit from an angel! At times those angels will have the face of our grandchildren, at others, the face of family members, lifelong friends or those we have come to know, when we have learned how important hugs and visits are for each of us." On this special day, may we pray and ask God's blessings on all grandparents and senior citizens.

Feast Day of Saints Joachim and Anne

This Monday, July 26, is the feast day of Saints Joachim and Anne, the parents of the Blessed Mother and the earthly grandparents of Jesus. There are no specific references to Joachim and Anne in the Bible or the four Gospels. There is a long-standing practice which has its origin in the oral tradition of early Christianity identifying them as Mary's parents.

As Mary's parents, they raised our Blessed Mother in a family environment with a love of God through prayer, sacrifice, and the study of Sacred Scripture. Both of these saints serve as exemplary models for parents and grandparents for their devotion to God and their daughter, Mary, the Blessed Mother. Saints Joachim and Anne are the patron saints of grandparents. May we pray: "Parents of Mary, pray for all parents and grandparents that they may provide the loving home and faithful teaching that you provided your daughter. Amen."
