Note from Friar Angelo

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I have only been with you now some short months and most of my hours have been occupied with writing my thesis, but it has been a joy to serve among you and to get to know many of you little by little. I wanted to take this opportunity to communicate directly with you all about my vocation.

I have been a Franciscan for nearly thirty-five years but during the last four I have been discerning with the Conventual branch of the Franciscan Order to see if perhaps God wants me to "begin anew" with this part of the Franciscan Family. I am happy to announce that I have applied and been accepted for solemn vows with the Franciscan Conventuals. This will take place at the Shrine of St. Anthony in Ellicott City, Maryland on July 15, the Feast of St. Bonaventure at the noon Mass.

To mark this new beginning I have been permitted to change my name back to the one I was given by my parents at Baptism: George Timothy. Growing up, everyone just called me Tim, so Friar Tim it is.

May the Lord bless you all.

DEACON'S CORNER

Feast day of St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Virgin

The feast day of St. Kateri Tekakwitha, is celebrated on July 14. St. Kateri is a Catholic saint who was an Algonquin-Mohawk lay woman. She is the first Native American recognized as a saint by the Church. Her baptized name was Catherine which she took from St. Catherine of Siena. She was also known as the Lily of the Mohawks. St. Kateri converted to Catholicism at the age of 19 and took a vow of chastity dedicating herself to Jesus Christ.

St. Kateri was a very devout person and prayed for the conversion of the Mohawk nation. She lived a life dedicated to prayer, penitential practices and caring for the sick and elderly. St. Kateri was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on Oct. 21, 2012. She is the patroness of ecology and the environment. There is a parish bearing her name in Spring Mills, PA near State College, Centre County.

St. Bonaventure, Bishop and Doctor of the Church

St. Bonaventure's feast day is celebrated on July 15. Known as the "Seraphic Doctor", he is recognized for his leadership of the Franciscan Order and his teaching and intellectual contributions in theology and philosophy. He joined the Franciscan Order in 1243 and 14 years later, he was chosen to serve as the General of the Order. Over a period of 17 years, St. Bonaventure brought unity and peace to the Order. He proposed and collected a unified text regulating the daily life of the Friars which was accepted and ratified in 1260. St. Bonaventure wrote numerous spiritual works, including "The Life of St. Francis" and "The Soul's Journey into God". He died while he was assisting at the Second Council of Lyons in 1274. St. Bonaventure was canonized in 1482 by Pope Sixtus IV.
