Deacon's Corner

On Tuesday, October 1, the Memorial of Saint Therese of the Child Jesus will be celebrated at Mass. St. Therese was a cloistered Carmelite sister known as “the Little Flower.” She was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope John Paul II in 1997 and is one of four women who are Doctors of the Church.

Born in 1873, she was raised in a model Catholic family. Both her mother and father, Zelig and Louis, were also canonized in 2015. St. Therese formally entered the convent at 15 years of age. For the next nine years, she lived a holy and quiet life in the convent.

During this time Therese wrote her autobiography, The Story of A Soul. In this work, she writes about her life as a child, her call to religious life, her love of family and about the way in which she understands Christian discipleship. St. Therese described her spirituality as “the Little Way”. St. Therese is the patroness of all foreign missions, missionaries, AIDS sufferers, and the patroness of France. Her statue stands in the front garden of Mother Cabrini Church in Shamokin.
