Deacon's Corner

On Tuesday, July 4, as a nation, we will celebrate Independence Day. May we thank Our Heavenly Father for our nation and ask God to bless and protect our country, "Father of all nations and ages, we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen
(Roman Missal)

In this spirit of thanksgiving to Our Heavenly Father, let us reflect on the words of the late President John F. Kennedy from his inaugural address, which are engraved on the granite near his graveside, "With good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking God's blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own." As Jesus' disciples, let us faithfully perform God's work, love one another, and share the Good News with all that we meet this day.
