Deacon's Corner

In this third week of Lent, may we turn to Jesus Christ, who is our loving and merciful Savior and ask for the forgiveness of our sins. The overflowing mercy and healing power of Our Lord is seen in St. Matthew's Gospel. When the Pharisees see Jesus eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they ask His disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" (Matthew 9:11)

When Jesus hears this, He says to them, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners" (Matthew 9:12-13). Jesus comes to call each one of us who desire His healing compassion and soothing mercy. He will forgive us and bring a peace and calm into our hearts and our lives.

We are all vulnerable to sin, but it is encouraging to know that Jesus always waits for us to come to Him and ask for the forgiveness of our sins as we repent of these mistakes in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Jesus will heal our despair and guilt.
