Deacons Corner Third Sunday of Easter

On the Third Sunday of Easter, in the Gospel of St. John, Jesus speaks to His disciples after His Resurrection. Jesus reveals Himself again to them at the Sea of Tiberias. He says to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me . . .?" Simon Peter answers Him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus says to him, "Feed my lambs." In this command, Our Lord invites Peter and the other disciples to leave their former way of life and embrace a life of loving God and one's neighbors.

Like Peter, we too are called to provide for "God's lambs" by our time, talent, and treasure to fully participate in God's plan for our lives. Are we coming forward and saying yes to Our Lord in seeing His presence in one another? Is Our Lord asking you to serve someone in need or to trust Him in a new way? Is God asking you to serve in a parish ministry? This love of our sisters and brothers may be through small daily acts or in decisions about our spiritual life.

This week, may we pray about where and how Jesus is calling each one of us to serve. "Lord, my God, show me where You want me to serve. Help me to be open to Your call and to discern Your path for me. May my heart be filled with love and a desire to follow Your will. Amen."
