Deacons Corner Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter, April 27 is known as Divine Mercy Sunday. In the 1930's, a sister, St. Faustina received revelations from Jesus that asked her to establish a day of mercy. In one of Jesus' revelation, Faustina recorded Jesus' words, "This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of My tender mercies. Every soul believing and trusting in My mercy will obtain it."

In 2000, St. Faustina was canonized by Pope John Paul II. On her day of canonization, the pope officially declared that the Sunday after Easter would be Divine Mercy Sunday. He explained, "I wish solemnly to entrust the world to divine mercy. I do so with the burning desire that the message of God's merciful love, proclaimed here through St. Faustina, may be made known to all the people and fill their hearts with hope."

On this Sunday, may we pray, "God, merciful Father, in your Son, Jesus Christ, you have revealed your love and poured it out upon us in the Holy Spirit. We entrust to you today the destiny of the world and of every man and woman. Bend down to us sinners, heal our weakness, conquer all evil, and grant that all people may experience your mercy. In you, the Triune God, may we find the source of hope. Eternal Father, by the passion and resurrection of your Son, have mercy on us and upon the whole world."
