DEACON'S CORNER

The Feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist

The Feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist, will be celebrated on Thursday, September 21. St. Matthew is one of the twelve Apostles of Jesus Christ and one of the writers of the four Gospels. He is also known as Levi in the Gospels of Saints Mark and Luke.

St. Matthew, born in Galilee, was the son of Alpheus and was a tax collector. One day, Jesus approached Matthew "sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed Him" (Matthew 9:9). The Gospel of St. Matthew, the first of the four Gospels in the New Testament, reveals the message of Jesus Christ and the promise of eternal salvation which comes from God through Our Savior.

This Gospel, written in Aramaic, emphasized to the people that Jesus was the true Messiah whose kingdom had been fulfilled in a spiritual way. This message was important at this time because people were expecting the return of a militant messiah. (Catholic.org)

The example of St. Matthew's life clearly demonstrates that Jesus comes into our world to save all, those who are sinners, for "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do" (Matthew 9:13). On his feast day, may we pray, "St. Matthew through the grace of God Our Father you gave us the Holy Gospel, which brings us joy and life. Inspired by your example, we ask for your assistance and prayers in our needs. Help us to follow Christ and remain faithful to His service."
