DEACON'S CORNER

Third Week of Easter

This week, we celebrate the third week of Easter. In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus continues to appear to His disciples after His Glorious Resurrection. Two disciples describe to the others how Jesus appeared to them on their way to Emmaus. While they were speaking, Christ appears in their midst and says, "Peace be with you." They are startled thinking they see a ghost. Jesus encourages them to look at His hands and feet. He asks them if they have anything to eat. They offer him a piece of baked fish.

After this simple meal, Jesus "opens their minds to understand the Scriptures." He says to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, would be preached in His name . . . You are witnesses of these things" (Luke 24: 35-48). Like the disciples in this Gospel, Jesus also needs us as witnesses to continue His mission on this earth.

Christ, Our Savior, desires each one of us to be His eyes, ears, hands, and feet to bear witness of His love, mercy, and forgiveness with our sisters and our brothers. During this week, may we recognize the presence of our Risen Savior in others; and as witnesses to Christ, let us make the Lord present to everyone that we meet.
