Mitzel, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, Columbia, and Reverend Monsignor Edward J. Quinlan, VG, Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia for the Diocese.

Remembrance for your Loved Ones

Our church offers a beautiful way to remember and honor your loved ones both living and deceased, by having a candle burning in their memory. You may want to honor them on a birthday, anniversary, a special occasion or any time during the year. The candles available to reserve are: The Blessed Mother, The Sacred Heart, St. Francis, St. Anthony, St. Jude and the Tabernacle Candles.

Please call the office at 570-648-4432 to have them remembered on their special date or anytime during the year

Deacons Corner Fifth Sunday of Easter

In this fifth week of Easter, in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells His Apostles in His farewell address, "My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:31-33a, 34-35)

In His earthly ministry, Jesus gives us an example of God's love in this world. We are to continue His example of love with one another. Our Lord is calling us to act. Love is reaching out and caring for the good or well-being of another person – our sisters and brothers. Practical ways that we are able to love one another are to pray for others and their needs; volunteer in parish ministries or charity services; offer help in small ways - a meal, a task, a thoughtful message; forgive others; and invite others to church. The daily opportunities that the Lord provides us to act in love are many and varied.

In Jesus' name, may we pray, "Loving God, we thank you for your boundless love. Jesus, Our Savior, calls us to love one another as He loves us. We ask for the grace to cultivate within us a love that is generous, compassionate, and unwavering. May our hearts be filled with your love, so that it may overflow into our relationships and actions with all we meet in our lives."
