The Tradition of Our Lady of Hope

Tradition holds that during the Franco-Prussian War, Mary appeared to six children on January 17, 1871, in the village of Pontmain, France. She told them to pray for protection as troops approached the village and assured them that the conflict would soon come to an end. After the children and villagers prayed with their priest at the site of her appearance, the Prussian troops left the village and one week later, the war ended and all the Pontmain citizens who fought in the war returned safely home.

Deacon's Corner

We will celebrate the memorial for St. Anthony, Abbot on Tuesday, January 17. St. Anthony, also known as St. Anthony the Great, was born in the third century A.D. in Egypt. When Anthony was eighteen years old, his parents died and he inherited 300 acres of land. One day, while in church, he listened to St. Matthew's Gospel being read, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

That day, he gave his wealth away to the poor and entrusted his sister to a convent. Then, Anthony went outside the village to pray, fast, sacrifice, and do manual labor. He spent his life in solitude in the Alkaline Nitrian Desert region near Alexandria. He inspired hundreds of men and women to move into the desert and organized into small faith communities. St. Anthony was the founder of Christian monasticism and the first abbot.

St. Anthony's life helped to spread the concept of monastic life in Western Europe. He is the patron saint of skin diseases and grave diggers. St. Athanasius said, "Anthony was not known for his writings nor for his worldly wisdom, nor for any art, but simply for his reverence toward God."
