DEACON'S CORNER

The feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary will be celebrated on Wednesday, November 17. St. Elizabeth, the daughter of the King of Hungary, was born in 1207. She devoted herself to a life of penance and a great love for the poor and the suffering. Her service to those in need helped her become the patroness of all Catholic Charities and the Secular Franciscan Order.

At the age of 14, Elizabeth married and had three children. Throughout her life, she dressed in simple clothes and distributed bread to the people on a daily basis. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI explained that Elizabeth "diligently practiced works of mercy. She would give food and drink to those who knocked at her door, she procured clothing, paid debts, cared for the sick and buried the dead. Coming down from her castle, she often visited the homes of the poor bringing them bread, meat, flour and other food. She distributed the food personally and attentively checked the clothing and mattresses of the poor. She lived a life of service to justice and charity, in the constant search for the common good."

As a Secular Franciscan, she also cared for the sick at a hospital that she founded in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. She died before her 24th birthday and was canonized a saint four years later. St. Elizabeth is the patron saint of bakers, hospitals, brides, homeless and charities.

On her memorial, may we pray, "Almighty God, by whose grace your servant Elizabeth of Hungary recognized and honored Jesus in the poor of this world; Grant that we, follow her example, may with love and gladness serve those in need."
