

The Candle of Joy

The third candle symbolizes joy and is called the "Shepherd's Candle." To the shepherd's great joy, the angels announced that Jesus came for humble, unimportant people like them, too. In liturgy, the color rose signifies joy. This candle is colored pink to represent joyfulness and rejoicing.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be celebrated on Monday, December 12. Four hundred and ninety-one years ago, the Blessed Mother appeared to Juan Diego on Tepeyac Hill near Mexico City. She said to him, "I am the Ever-Virgin Holy Mary, Mother of the one True God, by whom we live, the Creator of all things, the Lord of heaven and earth. I desire that a temple be built here soon, so that I may show all my love, my compassion, my help, and my protection, because I am your merciful mother."

Juan Diego went and convinced Bishop Zumárraga to build the church that is now named the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. In this beautiful church is Diego's "tilma" which contains the image of the Blessed Mother. At first, the bishop hesitated and asked for a sign. Our Lady told Diego to go to the hill and pick the roses that would be in bloom on this winter day. He went and picked the flowers and returned to the bishop with them under his tilma. When he opened his mantle, the flowers fell to the ground and on his mantle remained an image of the Blessed Mother, the apparition at Tepeyac.

Our Lady, the Mother of the Americas, desires more than a shrine to be built. She wants us to build spiritual temples to carry God's love in our hearts and in helping our sisters and brothers in need.
