ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE WEEKEND: MILITIA OF THE IMMACULATA (MI) CONSECRATION TO MARY

With a view to promoting consecration to the Immaculate among the faithful served through the ministries of the friars of Our Lady of the Angels Province, Fr. Jobe Abbass, OFM Conv., who serves as our Province MI Assistant, plans to visit all of our pastoral ministries, over the next few years. In working with our Director of Mission Advancement, new prayer cards and MI enrollment forms have been created. Friar Jobe will be preaching at the Masses in the parishes to encourage the faithful to consecrate themselves to the Immaculate and to enroll in the M.I. At those Masses, the congregation will be given an envelope with the consecratory prayers card and a miraculous medal. On the envelope those who wish to enroll will have to opportunity to fill out the information and apply to enroll in the M.I. Enrollment Certificates will be issued from our offices in Rensselaer, NY. Consistent with our Franciscan charism and tradition of devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Franciscan Order's Constitutions remind the friars that in St. Maximilian's unconditional consecration to the Immaculate, the friars have found "a concrete form of openness to the new challenges of mission." Our province plans to more fully tap into this devotion from our Kolbean heritage.

Friar Jobe will be here with us for the weekend Masses at Our Lady of Hope, February 19 & 20.

Please welcome Fr. Jobe

DEACON'S CORNER

The memorial for Saints Cyril and Methodius will be celebrated on Monday, February 14. Well-educated, they were brothers from Thessalonica, which is now part of modern Greece. Saint Cyril, ordained a priest, accompanied his brother Methodius, a monk, as they tirelessly preached the Gospel to the people of the Slavonic nations.

As a result of this evangelization of the faith, these missionaries are known as the "Apostles of the Slavs." They spread the Gospel throughout Eastern Europe in the 9th century. These nations included such present-day countries as Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria. These two religious brothers also perfected a Slavonic alphabet called "Glagolitic" which was used in translating the Bible, liturgical books, and the holy liturgy into this language.

Cyril died in 869 in Rome and Methodius died several years later in 885, after serving as archbishop of Moravia. They are the patron saints of Slavic people and Ecumenism. May we ask Saints Cyril and Methodius, the brothers who spread Christianity throughout Eastern Europe to pray for us.
