Deacon's Corner
Act of the Apostles

During the Octave of Easter and continuing into the seventh week of Easter, the first readings at daily mass are from the "Acts of the Apostles." The Acts of the Apostles is believed to have been written by St. Luke. This book describes how the Spirit of God guides the Apostles in their ministries. The Risen Jesus tells His Apostles, "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8). The Holy Spirit inspires their preaching, tells them where to go, and aids them in making decisions.

The Acts of the Apostles is composed of 28 chapters. Chapters 1 through 7 describe the preaching of the Apostles and the growth of the Christian community in Jerusalem. Chapters 8 through 12 focus on the growth of the Church in Judea, Samaria, and Syria. Chapters 13 through 28 emphasize the expansion of Christianity to "the ends of the earth," especially to Asia Minor, Greece, and Rome (Father Felix Just, <https://catholic-resources.org/Bible/Acts.htm>).

Like the Apostles, we are encouraged by the Holy Spirit to continue to share the love of Jesus and the Good News with all that we meet. The Acts contain many valuable lessons; they remind us that God is always with us and to trust in Him. This week, let us go to the Acts of Apostles in the Bible and read a passage(s) and prayerfully reflect on its meaning(s) for our lives.

May 13 is the feast of Our Lady of Fatima.

Mary is a powerful intercessor and model, especially in a time where sins of the flesh and sins against humanity dominate the culture.

Our Lady of Fatima appeared six times to the three shepherd children (Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco) from May 13, 1917 - Oct. 13, 1917.

Throughout her apparitions, she stressed prayer, fasting and sacrifice to obtain peace for the world and the conversion of sinners. She particularly encouraged daily devotion to the rosary.
