Rev. Mykola Ivanov, pastor of

Transfiguration Ukrainian Catholic Church will deliver a reflection at this service.

A donation box will be in the back of the church starting April 11th for donations of supplies to be sent to the Ukraine.

DEACON'S CORNER

Holy Week, which begins on Palm Sunday, is a sacred time as it remembers the last days of Jesus' life on earth. On this day, Jesus rides on a colt into Jerusalem as the people lay their cloaks in front of Him. They "praise God for the mighty deeds they have seen." Through the week, the Gospel tells us that Jesus teaches the people while the authorities plot to kill Him.

On Holy Thursday, the three days of the Easter Triduum begin. Jesus celebrates the feast of Passover with His disciples at the Last Supper. The institution of the Holy Eucharist and the priesthood are celebrated on this night. Afterward, Jesus goes to the Mount of Olives to pray with His disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane. In this garden, Christ is betrayed by one of his own, Judas and is arrested and taken to the authorities.

On Good Friday, Our Savior sacrifices His precious life on His Holy Cross for the redemption of our sins and our eternal salvation. As He is taken down from the Cross, Jesus is laid in a new tomb in the garden. Holy Saturday is the vigil of Our Lord's Resurrection, a day of anticipation, hope and prayer. This day concludes Holy Week.

On Easter Sunday, the tomb where He laid is empty. Jesus is risen from the dead. Our Savior has triumphed over sin and death.

Spring Food Sale & Basket Raffle

Looking ahead to our Spring Food Sale, please consider donating any size container of Crisco oil.

The price of cooking oil has been increasing and we only use Crisco Oil to make our delicious potato cakes. We greatly appreciate your help.
