OLOH EUCHARISTIC DEVOTION

March 6, 7, 8

Guest Speaker: Fr. Rich Rome, OFM Conv.

Topic: "This is the Way"

The early Christian church often referred to itself as "The Way". But throughout the New Testament, the evangelists use this word to describe more than just a community: it describes a mode of living, a confidence of belief, and a destination for a journey. As we begin our Lenten pilgrimage, we gather to reflect on living Christ's call in our world today, and how we follow him as the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

There will be sign-up sheets in the back of the church and outside the day chapel for those who would like to set a specific time aside to visit with our Lord.

This weekend our parish begins the Diocesan Annual Campaign using the in-Pew Program. There are pledge envelopes in each pew. You may make your pledge by returning it to the parish office or place it in the collection basket throughout Lent. Our assessment this year is 32,812. Last year we fell short $19,517 which had to be added to our yearly budget. Thank you in advance for your help with this appeal!

DEACON'S CORNER

During this first week of Lent, on Monday, March 7, we celebrate the optional memorial of Saints Perpetua and Felicity, Martyrs. At mass, as the celebrant prays Eucharistic Prayer I, he will invoke the names of these two martyrs, as well as other saints, prior to the congregation praying the Our Father.

Saint Perpetua was a well-educated, 22-year-old noblewoman from Carthage in North Africa. She was a mother of an infant son and was devoted to her Christian faith. Perpetua was arrested during the reign of the Roman Emperor Severus because she would not renounce her faith in Christ. Felicity, a slave and expectant mother, was also arrested and convicted with other devout believers. From their prison, they were sent to the public games in the amphitheater in Carthage. There, they stood side by side and were martyred in 203 A.D. Felicity gave birth to a healthy daughter just days before her death in the arena. Her baby was raised by a Christian woman in Carthage.

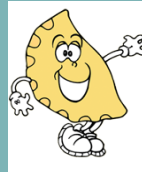

St. Perpetua wrote a diary about the conditions that led to their deaths. Years later, this diary was published as "The Passion of Saints Perpetua and Felicity." It is one of the earliest writings by a Christian mother.

Saints Perpetua and Felicity are the patron saints of mothers, expectant mothers, and widows. On their feast day, may we ask these two holy women, "To pray for us that our faith will never waver despite the trials and pain in our lives."

The Cabrini baseball organization is now accepting new players from the ages of 3 through 16 for its upcoming 2022 season. In addition, Cabrini offers a team for any youth to young adults with any kind of physical or intellectual disability. Contact Leo Mirolli at 570-274-3460 for further information
