Feast of St. Mark the Evangelist

The feast of St. Mark the Evangelist will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 25, which is the day of his martyrdom and death. St. Mark was born in 5 A.D. in Cyrene, which is the present-day country of Libya. Mark was a close friend of St. Peter who described him as "Mark, my son" (1 Peter 5:13). St. Peter instructed and baptized Mark in the Christian faith.

In 50 A.D., St. Mark wrote one of the Gospels which is the shortest of the four Gospels. Originally, it was written for Roman Gentiles. The Gospel of St. Mark presents a beautiful and detailed description of Jesus' public life.

St. Mark preached the Good News in Egypt where he was the Bishop of Alexandria. He founded the first church in Africa. After ministering to the people of Alexandria for twenty years, he was martyred. St. Mark is the patron saint of attorneys, prisoners, Italy, and other causes.

Most importantly, St. Mark is one of God's evangelists who faithfully wrote down the life of Jesus Christ in Holy Scripture for us to read, meditate on, and act upon as His disciples. These words of God support us in changing our hearts and giving our lives to Jesus, Our Risen Lord. During this week, let us go to the Gospel of St. Mark in the Bible and read a passage(s) and prayerfully reflect on its meaning(s) for our lives.
