Thank You!!!

To all who have been a part of the Rainbow Club and the Council of Catholic Women:

Thank you for your many years of dedicated service to help in building up the kingdom of God here in our community.

For many years the members of these groups offered acts of charity and so many prayers for our community.

WE THANK YOU....for the years of having brought life, love, and laughter into the hearts of so many.

Now we look to the future.

Is there a desire in our faith community for a spiritual and/or social group?

If anyone in the parish has a thought or idea, as a result of prayer and discernment, please call the parish office.

DEACON'S CORNER

The feast of St. Luke, the Evangelist, will be celebrated on Monday, October 18. St. Luke is believed to be the author of the third Gospel that bears his name as well as the Acts of the Apostles. St. Luke was born in Antioch in Syria to a prosperous Greek family and was trained as a physician. St. Paul spoke about Luke as the "beloved physician".

St. Luke accompanied St. Paul on his second missionary trip. He was with Paul in Rome during St. Paul's imprisonment and final days. In a letter to Timothy, St. Paul writes, "the time of my dissolution is at hand, I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course, I have kept the faith". He goes on to say, "only Luke is with me".

According to Catholic tradition, after Paul's death, St. Luke went to Greece where he wrote the Gospel. The Gospel of St. Luke is a Gospel of the poor encouraging tenderness and mercy for the oppressed. Christ's compassion for sinners and for those who suffer are emphasized in this Holy Scripture. This Gospel also contains six miracles and eighteen parables of Jesus that are not found in the other three Gospels. The story of Lazarus and the Rich Man and the parable of the Good Samaritan are told in this Gospel.

St. Luke is the patron saint of physicians, artists, painters, and sculptors. On his feast day, may we pray, "St. Luke, you are animated by the Heavenly Spirit of Love. In faithfully detailing the humanity of Jesus, you also showed His Divinity and His genuine compassion for all human beings. May the Holy Spirit, instructor of the faithful, help us to understand Christ's words and faithfully apply them in our lives".
