Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul, Apostle

The Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul, Apostle, will be celebrated on Wednesday, January 25. On this day, Saul, later named Paul, a persecutor of Christians, "set out for Damascus to bring them back to Jerusalem in chains." On the road to Damascus, Paul encounters the Risen Jesus. Christ says to Saul, "Why are you persecuting me? I am Jesus the Nazorean whom you are persecuting" (Acts of Apostles, 22:5-8).

Jesus tells Paul, "Get up now . . . I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and witness . . . I send you, to open their eyes - that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may obtain forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been consecrated by faith in me" (Acts of Apostles, 26:16-18).

After this event, St. Paul explains that his work "was to present everyone perfect in Christ. For this I labor and struggle, in accord with the exercise of His power working within me" (Colossians 1:28b-29).

On this feast, the Mass responsorial psalm proclaims, "Go out to all the world, and tell the Good News." In this spirit, may we ask the Holy Spirit to work within us; and like St. Paul, inspire us to announce the Good News to all in our daily lives.
