Remembrance Opportunities For Your Loved Ones. . .

The parish has a wonderful array of remembrance opportunities for both, the living and deceased. You may honor your loved one's memory or celebration of a special occasion, like a birthday or an anniversary by offering the flowers by the tabernacle, the candles used at Mass, the bread and wine offered at Mass, the Sanctuary candle, the church bells, etc. What a meaningful way to honor them on their special date! Reserve dates are filling up quickly so call the parish office to make your reservation.

Mother Cabrini Memorials

Mother Cabrini Parish expresses gratitude to those families who, throughout the year, suggest and encourage memorials to the parish in memory of their loved ones.

REGARDING OUR CEMETERIES:

Please do not deposit your pet waste in the trash cans. It is most rude and discourteous to expect our maintenance crew to empty cans with bags of dog waste inside. If your "Fido" relieves himself in the cemetery, please take that souvenir home with him.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS and PHONE NUMBER:

A reminder to please contact the parish office with a change of address and/or your telephone number. You are important to us and at times we may need to contact you by either phone or mail. When mail is returned to the parish office we are charged a return fee.

Mission Co-op Weekend

This weekend, let us welcome Fr. Francis Jin, from St. Vincent Missions. Hear about their essential mission work for the Church, their stories, their challenges and their successes. Learn about the differences they are making to the people they serve.

The weekend is sponsored by the diocesan office of Pontifical Mission Societies.

The Societies support the Church in mission dioceses worldwide until they become self-sufficient.

Online contributions to this mission may also be made through the Missions Office home page at www.hbgdiocese.org/missions

Please pray for the work of this missionary group and provide as you are able.

Rest in Peace: Kindly remember in your prayers the souls of Jean Kaskie, John Sebroski, Elizabeth Purcell, Melvin Kleckner and Michael Tetkoskie. May God grant them eternal rest.

Exercise Your "Will Power"

Did you know that you can easily add Mother Cabrini Church to and already existing will through the use of a codicil? Simply check with your attorney on how it is done.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME July 13, 2025

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY
READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 13, 2025

"There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, 'Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'What is written in the law? How do you read it?' ...If only you would heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in the book of the law, when you return to the Lord, your God, with all your heart and all your soul...it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts, you have only to carry it out."

At one-time, people knew the commandments by heart, as Moses provided ten. Jesus helped us, by making them as two - love of God and neighbor. They can be reduced to the positive word 'respect.' Some telephone apps provide quizzes on geography, math or other tests like the scholar of the law. At one-time people knew them by memory. Today many would not pass the quiz. What are the ten, two, or where is the respect they call for in my life?

In the gospel of Luke, the parable of the good Samaritan provides the answer for us to carry out and inherit the gift of eternal life, now and in the future. 'To know the Father and the Son whom he has sent.'

Deacon's Corner
Fifteenth Week in Ordinary Time
July 13, 2025

On this Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, in St. Mark's Gospel, Jesus tells us the parable of the Good Samaritan. This specific story illustrates that loving one's neighbor means that we live our faith when we practice acts of love and compassion with all in need (Luke 10:25-37).

As Christians, we should not ask "Who is my neighbor?" Rather, we need to ask, "Am I a good neighbor to others?" The word "neighbor" means anyone who needs help that we meet each day. "One's neighbor needs to be loved with the same love with which Our Lord loves him or her." (Pope St. John Paul II, Sollicitudo Rei Socialis, 1987).

We know that the road to Jericho where the injured person lays in our Gospel's parable passes through our homes, towns, and workplaces. Like the Good Samaritan, may we ask for God's grace to support our sisters and brothers.

A true story illustrates our Gospel's message. One day, Tom Weller's car broke down in Southern California. A stranger stopped to help Weller and did not accept payment for his kindness. Instead, the stranger asked Weller to return the favor by helping others. He took those words to heart. For the last thirty years, Tom has helped thousands of stranded people along Southern California's highways. He never asks for payment. Instead, He leaves a card asking each person to help someone in need. It has become his mission to pass on the kindness that was once done for him.

Offertory Gifts at Mass. . .

If, at a particular weekend Mass, you would like to bring up the gifts at that Mass, simply let your wishes be known to one of the ushers in the rear of the church before Mass begins and they will assist you at the proper time.
