Fourth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas addressed many people, and large crowds gathered to hear them. Some of the Jews became jealous, and argued with whatever Paul said. But Paul and Barnabas continued preaching their message of salvation and everlasting life, until they were eventually forced to leave the town.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

John saw a vision of many people surrounding a throne and the Lamb. One of the elders told him these were the people who had survived great periods of trial, but maintained strong faith in God. Now they would receive eternal protection and comfort from God as reward for their loyalty.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus states that his sheep know his voice and follow him, and will receive eternal life. Jesus also says that no one can snatch his followers away, because God is greater than anyone who might try, and Jesus is one with God.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, in the Gospel of St. John, Jesus says to His disciples and us, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish" (10:27-30). At times, life presents unique challenges which create stress in our daily lives. However, our scriptural readings assure each one of us that that we are never abandoned by Our Lord in these moments.

Having faith in God's enduring mercy in these difficulties, Jesus promises us, "No one can take them out of my hand" (John 10:28). We belong to Christ. Do not be afraid for Jesus walks along with us in these instances. Whatever disappointment, anxiety, or trial that we face, we are not alone or abandoned. Have faith and trust in Jesus' presence in your lives and ask Him for His help.

In the spirit of this Sunday's scriptural readings, may we pray, "'Lord, in the midst of life's challenges, I turn to You. Grant me the courage to face what lies ahead, the wisdom to make wise decisions, and the peace that surpasses all understanding. Help me to trust in Your unfailing love and know that You are with me through it all. In Jesus' name, Amen."
