When circumstances prevent you from attending Mass on a particular weekend, please remember to bring and add your offertory envelopes to the following week's collection. The parish builds its annual budget based on projected income and projected expenses. Shortfalls in any weekend collection income strains our ability to pay our regular occurring parish bills. Thank you and God bless all who support their parish, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health and whether in town or not!

Lottery Calendars for January 2025

To be fair to all, kindly keep in mind that our policy is that one weekend Mass and one weekday Mass may be scheduled per family. Beginning January 7th, 2025, unlimited number of Masses may be scheduled in the parish. Undated Masses, celebrated by the Friars in different locations may be reserved at your convenience anytime throughout the year.

Offertory Gifts at Mass. . .

Tickets are $15 each or 2 for $25 and are available for purchase at the parish office during office hours. On this World Mission Sunday, October 20th, it's important to remember the legacy of missionary work. The Church in the United States was once mission territory, supported by the generosity of Catholics worldwide. Today, we continue this legacy by supporting the Pontifical Mission Societies, ensuring that the Gospel reaches the ends of the earth. Our contributions help build and sustain communities of faith in places where the Church is still growing or facing persecution. This mission is a testament to our faith in action reflecting the universal call to share Christ's love. As we reflect on this year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us recommit to supporting our global Church family.

Thank You!

... to the Chicken BBQ

Team, who worked behind the scenes this month to make the event so successful. A note of thanks to: the parish office staff for their planning, ordering, handling of ticket sales, record keeping, advertising etc.; all parishioners who purchased tickets and those who went the extra mile(s) to sell tickets; our local "hi-rise" patrons; those who contributed monetary donations and/or supplies for the event; the great kitchen crew who did all the pre-event prep work Saturday; those who assembled the platters, & did clean up afterward; those who delivered our platters to folks who couldn't come to the "Shed;" and to our "chicken men" who manned the grills from 6:00AM until the last rack was done. To each and every one who played a part, a most sincere Thanks & Applause for a job very well done! It was a delicious meal with lots of compliments!

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Isaiah speaks of how the Servant of God will have to give his life up for the sins of other people. Because of this suffering the Servant will receive eternal life for himself and all the people whose sins are forgiven because of him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is considered to be the new high priest and mediator between God and his people. Fortunately, Jesus has experienced the same temptations as other people, and so he has more tolerance of our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.

Deacon's Corner St. Pope John Paul II

The optional memorial of St. Pope John Paul II will be celebrated on Tuesday, October 22. St. John Paul II was born Karol Jozef Wojtyla in 1920 in Wadowice, Poland. After being ordained a priest in Poland, he became an auxiliary bishop. In 1964, he was selected as the Archbishop of Krakow and participated in the Second Vatican Council.

Archbishop Wojtyla was elected pope, the 263rd successor to St. Peter, in October 1978 and took the name John Paul II. Pope John Paul II led the initiatives in the creation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) and the Code of Canon Law for the Latin Church and for the Eastern Churches. In a missionary spirit, he met and greeted millions of people in his papal ministry. He also attracted young people to the Church by beginning the celebration of World Youth Day.

Lech Walesa, the first President of Poland after the fall of Communism, credited St. John Paul II with giving the Polish people the courage to demand change. Pope John Paul II encouraged a spiritual and cultural resistance to the Communist occupation of Poland, giving the people hope in the face of oppression.

Pope John Paul II passed on to eternal life on Saturday, April 2, 2005, the vigil of Sunday of Divine Mercy Sunday, which he had instituted. He was canonized by Pope Francis on April 17, 2014. There is a national shrine dedicated to St. John Paul II in Washington, DC. On this day, may we reflect about one of his quotes, "The more ready you are to give yourself to God and to others, the more you discover the authentic meaning of life."
