Remember, the Bill-Collector Always Shows Up!!

When circumstances prevent you from attending Mass on a particular weekend, please remember to bring and add your offertory envelopes to the following week's collection. The parish builds its annual budget based on projected income and projected expenses. Shortfalls in any weekend collection income strains our ability to pay our regular occurring parish bills. Thank you and God bless all who support their parish, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health and whether in town or not!

Offertory Gifts at Mass. . .

If, at a particular weekend Mass, you would like to bring up the gifts at that Mass, simply let your wishes be known to one of the ushers in the rear of the church before Mass begins and they will assist you at the proper time.

Alleluia

Mother Cabrini Memorials

Mother Cabrini Parish expresses gratitude to those families who, throughout the year, suggest and encourage memorials to the parish in memory of their loved ones.

May 18, 2025 Fifth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas traveled to many towns and found many disciples willing to help them preach. They warned their disciples of the trials they would face. Paul and Barnabas then returned to Antioch, where their journey had begun, and told the congregation there of the progress they had made.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

John had a vision of a new earth, and a new Jerusalem coming down from heaven. Then a voice described Jerusalem as a place where God would live among his people and comfort them. The former world had vanished, and pain, death and suffering had left the world as well.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

After Judas left the last supper, Jesus warned the other disciples that he would not be with them much longer. Jesus gave them a new commandment to love one another as he had loved them. He stated that their love for each other would distinguish them as his disciples.

REST IN PEACE: Kindly remember in your prayers the souls of Joan Deroba, Dr. Vincent J. Urick, Jr., Nancy Hauer, and Clara Glassic. May God grant them eternal rest

Deacon's Corner

Fifth Sunday of Easter

In this fifth week of Easter, in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells His Apostles in His farewell address, "My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:31-33a, 34-35)

In His earthly ministry, Jesus gives us an example of God's love in this world. We are to continue His example of love with one another. Our Lord is calling us to act. Love is reaching out and caring for the good or well-being of another person – our sisters and brothers. Practical ways that we are able to love one another are to pray for others and their needs; volunteer in parish ministries or charity services; offer help in small ways - a meal, a task, a thoughtful message; forgive others; and invite others to church. The daily opportunities that the Lord provides us to act in love are many and varied.

In Jesus' name, may we pray, "Loving God, we thank you for your boundless love. Jesus, Our Savior, calls us to love one another as He loves us. We ask for the grace to cultivate within us a love that is generous, compassionate, and unwavering. May our hearts be filled with your love, so that it may overflow into our relationships and actions with all we meet in our lives."

Please Pray for Our Troops and their Families.

Alleluia
