The Passion of St. John the Baptist

The Passion of St. John the Baptist, who was beheaded by King Herod in 30 A.D., will be celebrated on Monday, August 29. John was the cousin of Jesus and the son of St. Elizabeth. This memorial is one of the oldest liturgical feast days in the Church that honors the martyrdom of St. John.

St. John was "a holy and righteous man" (Mark 6:20) According to St. Mark's Gospel, Herod imprisons John because he spoke out about "Herod having his brother's wife" or taking her as his wife (Mark 6:17-20). On Herod's birthday, his new wife's daughter danced before Herod and his guests. He was so pleased that he promised to give her anything that she requested. She asked her mother, Herod's new wife, what she should request. Her mother told her, "St. John's head on a platter." Herod agreed and had St. John executed in prison. St. John, "a martyr of faith," spoke the truth with courage calling others to embrace Jesus as the Savior. St. John proclaimed Christ's divinity to all people, "The one who is coming after me ranks ahead of me because He existed before me" (John 1:15). As Jesus approaches him, John says, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). St. John the Baptist, pray for us.
