Deacon's Corner

We celebrate the feast of Saints Simon and Jude, the Apostles, on Thursday, October 28. Both of these ordinary men were chosen and commissioned by Jesus Christ "to make disciples of all nations." (Matthew 28:19) These two apostles were known as Simon the Zealot and Jude Thaddeus. Both witnessed the many miracles that Christ performed, attended the Last Supper and saw Jesus ascend into heaven. The examples of these saints encourage each of us as Jesus' disciples to share the Good News of Our Lord with all that we meet in our daily lives. St. Simon is the patron saint of couriers and St. Jude, is the patron saint of hopeless or lost causes and hospital workers.
