Deacon's Corner

The memorial for St. Peter Claver, a Jesuit missionary and the patron saint of slaves and interracial justice, will be celebrated on Friday, September 9. Ordained a priest in 1610, St. Peter, a native of Spain, served the enslaved Africans who were brought to the Spanish colonies in Cartagena, Colombia. Cartagena, a rich port city, was a center for the slave trade in the New World.

Despite his own health problems and the language barriers, St. Claver would board every ship which entered the harbor and minister among the enslaved people. He offered them medicines, drink and food. Whenever he came upon a baby or a person who was dying, he immediately baptized them. St. Peter explained, "We must speak with our hands before we try to speak with our lips."

With interpreters, he provided religious instruction and assured the people of God's love and their human dignity. In his ministry, St. Peter survived minimum amounts of sleep and food. He baptized and taught the faith to over 300,000 people over a 40 year ministry in Cartagena. He became ill with the plague and died on September 8, 1654. St. Peter was canonized in 1888.

May we ask St. Peter Claver for his intercession and to pray for us that "we may love our neighbor in deeds and truth". (Mass Collect on his feast day)
