Deacon's Corner

The memorial for Saints Cyril and Methodius will be celebrated on Monday, February 14.

Well-educated, they were brothers from Thessalonica, which is now part of modern Greece. Saint Cyril, ordained a priest, accompanied his brother Methodius, a monk, as they tirelessly preached the Gospel to the people of the Slavonic nations.

As a result of this evangelization of the faith, these missionaries are known as the "Apostles of the Slavs." They spread the Gospel throughout Eastern Europe in the 9th century.
Cyril died in 869 in Rome and Methodius died several years later in 885, after serving as archbishop of Moravia. They are the patron saints of Slavic people and Ecumenism. May we ask Saints Cyril and Methodius, the brothers who spread Christianity throughout Eastern Europe to pray for us.
