Deacon's Corner

The optional memorial for St. Pope John XXIII will be celebrated on Wednesday, October 11. Pope John XXIII was born Angelo Guiseppe Roncalli, one of thirteen children of a farming family, at Sotto il Monte, Italy in 1881. He entered the Bergamo seminary and in 1904 he was ordained a priest. Serving in various church roles, he was a teacher at a seminary in Rome, a papal diplomat to Bulgaria, Turkey and France and became a cardinal in 1953. With the death of Pope Pius XII, he was elected Pope on October 28, 1958, taking the name Pope John XXIII. His pontificate lasted 5 years and he was known for his warmth and humor. As Pope, he was described as a simple, humble, meek and active Shepherd of the Church. He continued his ministry of visiting the sick and those in prison and welcomed people from every faith and country. The people called him, "Good Pope John."

In 1962, Pope John XXIII became involved in resolving the Cuban Missal Crisis. In this same year, he called for the Second Vatican Council. After his death in 1963, Pope Francis canonized Pope John in 2014. On his feast day, may we pray, "St. John XXIII, pray for us so that we do not limit ourselves to mourn the darkness, but rather to enkindle the light, bringing Christ everywhere and always praying to Mary, Amen."
