2022 Diocesan Annual Campaign

Catholic Life and Evangelization programs that enhance and grow married life, minister to those in prison and promote pro-life initiatives are supported by the Diocesan Annual Campaign. Catholic Charities and their many services, like counseling to homeless shelters to support for those struggling to maintain sobriety, are also made possible because of support to the DAC. Our collective efforts support all in our faith community when they are most in need.

Deacon's Corner

This week, as a Church community, we celebrate the solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul on Wednesday, June 29. Together, these two saints were the founders of the Holy See in Rome through their ministry, preaching and martyrdom. St. Peter, also called Cephas. “the Rock”, was martyred in Rome in 64 A.D. St. Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles”, was taken to Rome, imprisoned and beheaded in 67 A.D.

The day after this solemnity, on Thursday, June 30, the optional memorial for First Martyrs of Holy Roman Church is observed. In 64 A.D., the Roman emperor, blamed the fire that destroyed one half of Rome on the Christians who resided in the city. These holy women and men, known as the “Protomartyrs of Rome”, were the first martyrs that were the first martyrs that were persecuted and executed in mass numbers.

These martyrs died before St. Peter and St. Paul. Many were crucified, burned to death and fed to wild animals.

The faith of these martyrs provided firm testimony to others which lead to their conversion in the early church. The site of St. Peter's martyrdom and the other martyrs is marked by the Piazza dei Protomartiri in the Vatican next to St. Peter's Basilica.

This week pray, “Like these holy women and men, may we ask the Holy Spirit to help us to be firm and faithful in our love of Our Lord.”
