Deacon's Corner

In this Sunday's Gospel, as well as two previous Sundays' Gospels, Jesus offers us His forgiveness of our sins. Christ encourages us to share forgiveness with people in our lives. Forgiving others is letting go and no longer wishing ill will on another person. By forgiving, we come closer to God and lighten the weight of our negative emotions.

A lesson of forgiveness is shown in a story about Dr.

Cronin, a physician in England. One night, he assigned a nurse to a boy suffering from diphtheria who was given a slight chance of living. A tube was inserted into his throat to help him breathe. The nurse's responsibility was to clean the tube. As she sat beside his bed she accidentally dozed off and when she awoke, she found the tube was blocked. In a panic, she called the doctor. By the time he arrived, the boy died. That night, the doctor angrily wrote a recommendation demanding that the nurse be fired. He called her into his office and read the letter. The nurse stood in silence and sorrow. When asked to reply, the nurse asked for forgiveness and another chance. Dr. Cronin could not sleep that night. In his heart he kept hearing, "Forgive us our trespasses." The next morning he tore up the report. In the years that followed, he watched as this woman became the head of a medical center and one of the most revered nurses in England.

Christ always forgives us, may we forgive others.
