The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the Apostles will be celebrated this Sunday, June 29. St. Peter and St. Paul are two Apostles of Christ who preached and spread the Good News in the early church and to this day. St. Peter was given the keys to heaven as Jesus' vicar on earth and as the first pope. St. Paul wrote many Scriptural readings and evangelized people in the name of Christ.

These two saints remind us of our call to be witnesses for Christ in our lives. We are encouraged to live out our faith through our actions and words and to share Jesus' message of love with others. It is also a day to reflect on our own of our faith and how we can be more active in spreading the Gospel in our community.

St. Pope John Paul II asked the faithful to follow the examples of Saints Peter and Paul "in bringing light into our world." He said, "In their apostolic mission, Saints Peter and Paul were obliged to face difficulties of every kind. They were able to overcome every trial because their trust was not based on human resources but on the grace of the Lord. It is this same trust in God which must also sustain us. Yes, the 'Lord delivers his friends.' This awareness must instill courage in us as we face the difficulties encountered in proclaiming the Gospel in daily life."

On this day, may, we pray, "Pray for us, holy Apostles Peter and Paul, 'pillars' of God's Church."
