Deacons Corner

Twenty Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel of St. Luke, Jesus is a guest at a wedding banquet. He notices that some guests are concerned about getting the best seats – places of honor. However, in a parable, Jesus gives the wedding guests and us a beautiful lesson. He says, "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. Rather, go and take the lowest place."

In this story, Jesus gives us a lesson in humility which is central for our Catholic lives. Humility is the foundation of all virtues. It is knowing who we are in relation to God and to one another. It emphasizes that all people are equal in God's eyes and is not dependent on our occupations or social status. We are all children of God. Our Savior Himself provides us the ultimate example of humility as He comes into our world, suffers, dies, and rises for our salvation.

Humility calls us to be thankful to God for the many gifts that He has bestowed on us. This virtue also encourages us to grow and improve in our Christian lives. It calls us to perform acts of charity and mercy for others without looking for some reward or benefit for ourselves. May we do things freely for the love of God and our neighbors.

In this spirit, may we pray, "Jesus, help me to walk in humility and see others as your beloved children."

Religious Education class will be starting next Sunday, September 7 at 9:45 AM. First Communion Registration and meeting will be held in the Chapel for parents and students.

Confirmation registration and meeting will be held in the parish hall for both parents and students. There is a $30 charge for new registrations.

After instructional time is over, all students will walk as a group to Our Lady Of Hope Church to attend the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Those who are attending Mass at Mother Cabrini or who have already attended Mass will be dismissed from OLOH Church. Religious Education is over at the completion of the 11:00 a.m. Mass.
